FIRE PREVENTION IS TOPIC OF ESSAY CONTEST SPONSORED BY THE VOLUNTEER FIREMEN

A prize essay contest open to every grammar school boy and girl in Sierra Madre is being conducted by the volunteer fire department during Fire Prevention Week, October 6-13, in order to fully impress both pupils and their parents with the vital importance of fire prevention precaution.

Children at both the public school and St. Rita's Parochial school were given full details of the contest this week, and essays are to be submitted through class teachers commencing Monday. No restrictions are placed on the choice of title, all essays being written on the general topic of "How Can I Prevent Fires. It is thought this method will cause the participants to think for themselves on the subject, and also will arouse an interest on the part of their parents.

George Norris, Vernon Udell, and W. L. Hibbs have been named by Fire Chief W. D. Richards on the committee to promote public interest during the nationally observed prevention week. Two selections will be made each school. The first prizes will be $1.50 each, and the second awards one dollar. Special school assemblies will be held for presentation of the prizes October 26.

All four of the winners, two from each school, will be guests of the Kiwanis Club at the annual Christmas party.

Limited to 150 words, the essays may deal with forest fires as well as city fire hazards. The judges are Jack Hosford, Kiwanis Club; Bill Schwartz, American Legion; Vernon Udell and George Norris, representing the volunteer fire department, and Joe Johnson, district Forest Service Patrolman.

"The annual American fire loss," Fire Chief Richards states in connection with the contest, "amounts to half a billion dollars, and unfortunately the human element enters into these losses to a large degree. People forget in their unguarded moments, become careless, and fire results. Therefore the Sierra Madre firemen believe in educating children to be careful in use of fire, so that they will grow up to be fire conscious."

Inquiry Into Purchase Of Pipe Asked

Orange Grove Avenue Property Owners Take Matter To The Grand Jury

A committee of East Orange Grove avenue property owners announced this week that the Los Angeles county grand jury had been requested to inquire into the purchase by the City Council of Sierra Madre of 2700 feet of pipe to be used as a water main on the thoroughfare on which their properties have frontage. Though the matter was brought to the grand jury's attention last week, neither local officials nor the complaining property owners have received any notice that any investigation is under way.

It was represented to the grand jury that the pipe had been purchased following a star chamber session of the Council, without bids having been advertised for as required by law and that, though the pipe is second hand, new pipe could have been had for the same or smaller cost. The dissatisfied property owners also contend that there is no occasion now for the laying of a water main on the thoroughfare as all the properties on the street are supplied with water lines and that there would be no occasion later to tear up the proposed new paving because it is not intended to pave the full width of the street and the water line could be laid on one side of the paving of it should later become necessary. It was represented that though the pipe was bought on four purchase orders of $35.54 each, the orders were all deposited at one time and that the transaction actually involved the expenditure of $1742.16, whereas the law requires that bids be advertised for all purchase of $500 or over.

The grand jury was informed that whereas the city paid approximately sixty cents a foot for the second hand pipe, new pipe with a 700-pound pressure test, could have been bought on the open market for 46 cents a foot, delivered.

Records at the City Hall show that 1300 feet of the pipe was rejected as not up to specifications. It is contended that the Council was within its rights in failing to advertise for bids not only because the money to be expended is to be taken from the water revenue fund, but because none of the various purchase orders amounted to $500.

Jockey Club Will Pay $100 A Day For Race Track Permit

The maximum tax levy allowed by the State, of $100 per day, will be assessed by the city of Arcadia during the racing season for the operation of the Santa Anita race track. Although the city council disagreed on the tax to be set, the fee proposed by Councilman Hoffman was adopted under a peculiar Arcadia law which states that when a Councilman declines to vote, unless an explanation is offered, his is to be counted an aye vote.

In advocating the high levy, Hoffman cited the extra expense for policing and regulating traffic—and also pointed out that Arcadia's treasury is sadly depleted.

Observations

By Lee Shippey

THIS is written in all friendliness. With winter coming, it will pay the Pacific Electric to make its shelter at Lamanda Park junction a little more weather proof. That is one station in which often Sierra Madreans homeward bound from Pasadena have to wait nearly an hour, and when it's cold they have nothing to keep them warm except their tempers. At such times they always vow they will never again go to Pasadena by trolley, when they can go any other way.

Protection Against Fire Is SERA Plan

An extensive system of reservoirs, fire-breaks and pipelines may soon be established in the forest region back of Sierra Madre and Pasadena for use in fire fighting and reforestation work. The project awaits approval by the SERA agency, to which the proposal was made this week by the Board of Supervisors.

In explaining the system, the county surveyor's recommendation reads: "To fight brush fires you must have both men and water. From the reservoirs located near mountain tops, fire lines under tremendous pressure can be run down the main fire breaks to trails, roads, bottoms of canyons and other fire risk zones. . . . Borrowing from the hydraulic miners the principle of the hydraulic monitor, such monitors, capable of throwing a stream 100 feet high and 500 feet in any direction, would be located along the line."

"Since much of the installation would have to be done with hand labor, construction would logically be carried out as a relief project. It would seem that such projects, together with the construction of any trails, motor ways and fire breaks necessary to provide accessibility would be more desirable for unemployment relief this winter than many others which are proposed."

Preliminary estimates have been made on a test project to be constructed in the back country of Sierra Madre, and in the Pasadena and Altadena watershed territory. Such a system installed north of here would provide a much needed protection from both fire and flood.

Republican Women Organize; To Hold Meeting Tonight

J. J. McMahon, representative of the Los Angeles Republican headquarters, and Dr. Margaret Goettler of Sierra Madre, will be the speakers at tonight's meeting of the Woman's Republican Study Club in the City Hall. At the initial meeting Friday evening Mrs. Blanche Bule was chosen president of the organization.

Altar Society OK's Plans For Bazaar

St. Rita's Altar Society met on Tuesday to make arrangements for the bazaar to be held October 26 and 27. A luncheon, in charge of Mrs. Julia Shannon, Mrs. W. E. Craig and Mrs. W. D. Richards, was served at noon. At the business meeting, which followed, Mrs. Woodson F. Jones, president, asked for the donation of 60 pies for the bazaar. Her request was answered in five minutes with the promise of the full number. A preview of the hope chest, donated for the bazaar, was held. The chest, completely filled with linens, silks and all manner of useful articles, is on display in Sadler's dry goods store window. Mrs. Lida P. Grant was donor of the chest.

City's Trade Body Meets Monday Nite

An important meeting of the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce will be held at the City Hall on Monday night. Thirty new members recently elected will be placed on the roster. The membership committee headed by Captain E. G. Everett is to turn in another big batch of new members and a final decision will be reached as to whether or not a new booklet setting forth the city's advantages as a home place shall be issued, as demanded by many citizens.

New Highway Open Though Uncompleted

Possible Now To Reach Pasadena Over Central Avenue Extension

After nearly a year of construction work under both CWA and SERA administration, the extension of West Central avenue, from Sierra Madre to Walnut street in Pasadena was this week opened to traffic.

The final link of the thoroughfare, the Eaton Wash fill, is now passable, although there still remains additional grading and paving to be done. Most of the two miles of new roadway is well oiled, and graded for high speed driving, and in the future it is planned to surface the whole with macadam pavement. The new road cuts many minutes off the old route, being not only shorter but also having no intersecting thoroughfares to slow up traffic.

No plans have been made for dedicatory ceremony, but it is expected when final paving is completed that Sierra Madre and Pasadena city officials will join in celebrating the official opening of the boulevard.

Meanwhile the county planning commission and other organizations are seeking to have the road designated as Sierra Madre avenue, from the Arcadia city limits into its intersection with Huntington Drive at San Marino.

Veteran Of Civil War To Celebrate His 94th Birthday

M. A. Hawkes, of 196 West Montecito avenue, a veteran of the Civil War, will celebrate his 94th birthday anniversary at his home on October 15. Mr. Hawkes tells many interesting tales of his experiences since first coming to California 49 years ago. His first trip to Sierra Madre was made on horseback. It was on this trip that he made the acquaintance of N. C. Carter, who at that time was getting the title to his place. He met and won the friendship of Lucky Baldwin and many happy hours were spent on the Baldwin estate.

About this time a railroad was rocky the United States and Mr. Hawkes tells of riding first class from Los Angeles to Chicago for 50 cents. The beauty of Sierra Madre entranced him and beckoned him back 14 years ago to make his permanent home here. Mr. Hawkes, who is amazingly young for his years, takes a daily stroll, keeps an active interest in world affairs and has a host of friends whose company he enjoys at his home.

Funeral Today Of Edward H. Porter, Former Councilman

Edward Henry Porter, of 145 East Alegria avenue, passed away at his home on Tuesday, October 2, after an extended illness. During his residence of 22 years in Sierra Madre, Mr. Porter has made a wide circle of friends, who are saddened by his passing.

Mr. Porter was appointed to replace Earl Topping as a member of the City Council on October 25, 1923, and remained in office until April 1926.

He was born 67 years ago at Atlanta, Georgia, and had been a resident of California for the past 28 years. He had been in the insurance business for 47 years and during his residence on the Coast had been manager of the Ocean Accident and Casualty company, of Los Angeles.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Bertha Porter, of this city, and two sisters, Misses Lila and Evelyn Porter, of Galveston, Texas.

Funeral services will be held this morning at 11 o'clock at the Grant Funeral Parlors, 201 West Central avenue, with Rev. Arthur O. Pritchard, of the Congregational Church, officiating.

New Exhibit Opens At Little Gallery

Architectural sketches from St. Germaine, Rome, Assisi, and American communities comprise the October Little Gallery exhibit of Wallace Bonsall, Sierra Madre artist and architect, opened with a public reception last night.

Among the interesting collection of drawings, the entirety of which are actual working diagrams, is a proposed design for the entrance to the Calvary Cemetery in St. Louis, and several distinctive bookplates.

Sinclair Is Pictured As Real Menace

Election As Governor Would Bring Chaos In State Breakfast Club Told

Ole Hanson, founder of San Clemente, the Spanish village, and large Sierra Madre property owner, told the Foothill Breakfast Club at its Wednesday morning meeting in Arcadia City Hall that the election of Upton Sinclair as governor of California would be a dire calamity. It would be an invitation to all the Reds and radicals of the land to flock here and would inevitably result in millions of unemployed heading for California adding immeasurably to an already serious problem, he said. A large delegation of Sierra Madreans was in the audience that heard Hanson and George J. Hatfield, Republican candidate for lieutenant governor, flay the Epic plan as impractical and as holding out false hopes to the unemployed and those in distress. In his address Mr. Hanson said, in part: "I am utterly amazed at the evidences in his own words that Upton Sinclair views with complete indifference the probability that his own demagogic promises to end poverty in this state and to give everybody incomes of $10,000 a year, with easy jobs and little work, will attract millions of unemployed from all over the country to California."

"Sinclair was quoted by newspapers as saying that possibly half of the unemployed of the whole country will 'hop aboard freight trains and head for California' as soon as he is elected. Evidently Mr. Sinclair regards that as a thing ardently to be desired—this migration of the unemployed of the country to California. He is not shocked by the conception that maybe the number will be 5,000,000 or more and calmly says there is no way to prevent it."

"There is just one way to prevent it and that is to defeat Mr. Sinclair for governor and let the country know that California will not be the camping ground for the nation's unemployed. "Among hundreds of thousands that are sure to come hitch-hiking and freight-riding to California if Sinclair is elected November 6, and it may become a migration of millions of them as he says—and he says rightly that there is no way to guess now how many millions will come—you can bet there will be many of the worst Reds—old-time wabblers, most extreme Communists and radicals of all sorts. They will come rushing here expecting that under Sinclair as governor they will have all possible license. They have good cause to expect that, from the utterances and actions of Sinclair in the past."

"The people of California are willing and ready to take care of their own unemployed. We are all doing our best. We cannot and will not even try to take care of the outsiders who would come if Sinclair was elected. Every man, whether in overalls or broadcloth, would suffer; there would be a fight for every job. Those at present employed would have their pay cut or lose their jobs. The taxpayers would be crucified."

"The picture Sinclair paints of this probable influx of penniless, hungry, unhappy hordes, including Reds and criminals, shocks me. I can arrive at no other conclusion than that Upton Sinclair's real ambition is to attract such an unhappy mass to California that if his Epic plan does not work he will have the stage set here for revolution of the sort he has advocated for many years, maybe bloody revolution."

Another Series Of Twilight Recitals Begins In November

Twenty-two young people of the Church of the Ascension sat down to breakfast after the early service last Sunday.

On Monday at the meeting of the Vestry it was found that $450 must be raised by January 2nd for interest, insurance, street assessment, and other objects, in addition to the regular current expenses. The Vestry will make efforts to enlarge the list of weekly and monthly pledges for the support of the church. The Guilds will have sales, beginning with a food sale on October 13, and entertainments to assist. A new series of Twilight Organ Recitals will begin in November.

"Fine" Says City Judge When He Draws A Fine

JUDGE Tom Neale was initiated into the Kiwanis Club Tuesday noon with a taste of his own medicine. "The Judge," explained Clarence Huntsinger in introducing the newcomer, "is usually in the business of fining people for wrongdoing. But today he promised to be good and join our club."

"Fine!" said President William Middough. "No pun intended. . . I mean swell. We're glad to have Judge Neale with us. . . Now, fining with me is only a sideline, but—"

"Not guilty," gulped the Judge.

"Two bits," decreed his nibs, swinging his gavel, "two bits in cold cash."

"Fined!" muttered the Judge digging into his pants pocket.

The new board is expected to meet prior to Tuesday's meeting to choose a president and vice-president from its number. James Heasley and Captain Everett have been appointed to represent the local club at the interclub meet in Ontario today at noon.

Presenting a short illustrated lecture on the scientific development of the past few years, Dick Smith and Walter Blossom, Southern California Edison company executives proved entertaining. Slides were screened showing the progress in lighting, power plants, and electrical equipment.

Other timely subjects will also be discussed, according to Victor O. Schmidt, Forum president.

Camp Urges Adoption Of Amendments

Discuss Ballot Proposals At Meeting Of Sierra Madre Forum

Advocating the adoption of four of the constitutional amendments to be voted on by the voters of the State in November, E. W. Camp told the Sierra Madre Forum Tuesday night that the ballot are designed to improve the administration of criminal and civil law. The Forum meeting in the City Hall, was the first of the current season, and was presided over by Victor Schmidt, society president. "Amendment Number 3," explained Mr. Camp, eminent constitutional lawyer, "would change the method of selecting judges for the State Supreme Court, the District Court of Appeals and, in counties so desiring, the Superior Court. At present, the Supreme Court has seven judges. When one of them dies or resigns, the Governor appoints his successor. The appointee holds office only until the next election and if elected holds only until the end of his predecessor's term."

Pointing out the hardship such a system works on lawyers who ought to be on the Supreme bench, but who will not accept appointment under such conditions, Mr. Camp stated that if a judge is offered a fairly good partnership or position as a corporation counsel, he is likely to resign rather than accept the worries of the type of election now legal.

"Amendment three proposes to better this condition," he said, "by providing that when a vacancy occurs the Governor shall make an appointment with the approval of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, and the Court of Appeals, and the Attorney General. This appointee's name will be on the ballot at the next election, and he will be the only candidate for that office. If there are more votes against him than for him the Governor must appoint another man who will come up for approval or dismissal at the next election."

"When a judge's term is about to end, his name will be on the ballot if he wishes, otherwise the Governor will file a name. In either case the voters will either say yes or no to the retention of the judge, or the approval of the Governor's committee. The voters right to recall judges and the right of the legislature to remove or impeach is retained."

Mr. Camp also stated that no harm would be done by voting for amendment 14, also, that number applying similarly to Los Angeles county alone.

As to proposition number 4, Mr. Camp said that "we are in need of a State Department of Justice to establish cooperation between sheriffs and district attorneys of all of the counties." The amendment would establish the Attorney General as head of a State department of justice, giving him supervision over all sheriffs and district attorneys.

"The law now is," he continued, referring to No. 5, "that a defendant in a criminal case need not testify and that his failure to testify shall not be commented on by court or counsel nor considered by jury. This amendment would change this so as to permit court and counsel to call attention to defendants' failure to testify, and would permit the jury to give consideration to such failure."

"The same amendment No. 5 would also restore to the judges in our state courts the power to charge the juries with respect to matters of fact, as well as to testimony and law. Adoption would certainly aid in the administration of criminal law."

In conclusion Mr. Camp spoke in behalf of the adoption of proposition number 6, which would do away with unneeded red tape in felony cases. "Statistics show," he stated, "that of the men who are brought into court for trial on felony charges, about 75 percent plead guilty. Most of these would have been glad to plead guilty sooner, and have their troubles over. Likewise the county has been put to the expense in many cases of caring for the accused. All of these needless delays are obviated by this amendment, which permits a defendant to plead guilty when he is first brought into the justice court after arrest. The police judge certifies the case to the Supreme court, where nothing remains to be done except to pronounce sentence."

Quenell will preside and will welcome all new parents and friends. An interesting program has been planned by the principal, Arthur Brown, who will present the various student activities through the leaders themselves. Hilbert and she will make arrangements.

Just preceding the regular meeting, the official board will hold its meeting at 1:30 in the small room at the rear of Willard Auditorium. Members of the board from Sierra Madre are Mrs. H. B. Hersey, first vice president; Mrs. D. C. Ashmore, American citizenship; Mrs. Converse Twycross, juvenile protection and legislation; Mrs. J. S. Key, historian; Mrs. G. B. Morgridge, publicity and Mrs. George Hilbert, transportation.

The various home room mothers will be ready to receive those desiring to become members and thus start the exciting competition that the home rooms hold annually to bring in the greatest number of members. Mrs. J. M. Quenell of East San Gabriel held a delightful tea at her home on October 4, in honor of her official board and all the home room mothers to enable them to become better acquainted with each other and also understand their new duties.

Stand Fast—America!

By Den Walters

STAND Fast—America!

Take a firmer grip on those rights and privileges as American Citizens bequeathed to all of us by the Founders of this Republic.

American patriots, led by courageous General Washington in the fight to establish here, a country of free men, at Valley Forge, at Bunker Hill and on scores of other battlefields, American Colonists sacrificed their lives that Freedom might be established for all time in these United States.

At Gettysburg, at Vicksburg, at Appomattox and the fathers of our own generation sacrificed their lives to maintain our American heritage of liberty. Now—in 1934—that liberty is threatened again! There are now in America twice the number of Communists that were in Russia when Communism overthrew the government of that country!

The right of men to work, to own property, to establish homes, to worship according to the dictates of their own conscience is in jeopardy—TODAY, here in America!

Plans are proposed by which the newspapers of the land would be muzzled—subject to the dictates of a government bureau!

Plans are proposed and are openly advocated through which all business enterprises would be actually operated by or under the control of political appointees. Provisions of the Constitution of the United States are to be set aside—and not by a vote of the people as provided for by the Founders of the Republic. How far this tendency may go is evidenced by the growth of dictatorship in Europe.

Here in America—thank God—we still can vote. But DO we?

In the recent California primary—the "hottest" of its kind in many years—about sixty per cent of those qualified to vote actually went to the polls!

There lies the danger to your liberty and mine! Americans of this generation still have the opportunity to save their country by ballots instead of bullets.

STAND FAST, AMERICA, AND CAST YOUR BALLOTS.

Firemen Get New Truck In Canyon Area

Forestry Service Replaces "The Goat"— Been In Service Since 1910

"The Goat" was honorably retired from the city service this week, and in its place is a frisky youngster of mere wartime vintage.

Sierra Madre firemen are saddened at the demise of the old Canyon emergency fire truck, prosaically known as Engin No. 4 and more poetically as "The Goat." But the replacement, sent here by the Forestry Department, is not so new fangled.

The new truck, a White, as yet without nickname, has more gear shifts and levers than a steam shovel, according to Jim Heasley, and requires mechanical genius for maneuvering. It was in service overseas during the World War, and has a few honorable nicks and scars on its chassis to prove it.

Heasley and Steve Petsel, being canyon residents, were ordered by Fire Chief W. D. Richards to learn how to drive the "new" engine. Fire Patrolman Lee Johnson assumed the decided responsibility of instruction. Heasley and Petsel wandered back from fire drill afoot on Friday night long after the other trucks were in the firehouse.

"We got the engine started okay," said Heasley, "and even got the darn thing in low gear—but then we couldn't either shift into second or high, or stop the engine. So we drove around until it got tired, and up and stopped. I hope there isn't a fire very soon."

"The Goat," though officially retired, is parked in a garage near the canyon fire station and will be held for emergency until the firemen get better acquainted with the replacement. "The Goat" has been in service since 1910.

ED DAVIS LANDS JOB AT TEXAS SEMINARY

When Edward Davis enrolled last month in Chaffin's Theological Seminary, at Dallas, Texas, he registered also for work to aid him in financing his studies. Word was received here this week that he not only has already been given a job in keeping with his architectural training, but that job is the distinctive one of drawing the plans for a new building soon to be erected on the Seminary grounds.

Davis, who has secured his degree in architecture, now is studying theology in order that he may teach the subject in a university. His home is at 659 West Alegria avenue in Sierra Madre.

VOTER INTEREST IN STATE AFFAIRS REAL CORRECTIVE FOR ABUSES BY LEGISLATURE

By Ralph H. Taylor
(Executive Secretary, Agricultural Council of California)

NUMEROUS schemes have bobbed up in recent months for reorganization of the California State Legislature, some prompted by an honest desire to increase legislative efficiency—others apparently designed to overthrow the present balance of power between rural and urban districts.

Most recent of the myriad reorganization proposals is the so-called Unicameral system, or One - House Legislature, now under study by the Commonwealth Club of San Francisco.

Under this plan, advanced on the theory that it would prevent deadlocks between houses and greatly expedite legislative action, there would be a single house of perhaps 50 or 60 members, instead of the present Senate and Assembly structure.

Although the definite plan of legislative representation has not been determined, part of the membership under the One-House plan would be selected on a population basis and the remainder on a territorial or area basis.

Agriculture, the state's basic industry, has too many vital legislative problems at issue to submit to any program which would give the metropolitan areas absolute control of the Legislature. And any system of representation in a One-House Legislature would be likely to give such control to the metropolitan areas.

Under California's present legislative set-up—the so-called "federal plan," fathered by the statewide farm groups—the assembly is apportioned on a population basis and therefore city-controlled, while the Senate, districted on a basis of area, is responsive to the needs of agriculture and the "back-country."

While there are admitted imperfections in the present plan, it does, at least, provide a balance of power as between rural and urban areas. If legislation, which is unfair and inimical to the metropolitan districts, passes the Senate, it is certain of meeting stubborn opposition in the Assembly. And if the Assembly passes bills which are destructive of agriculture, they are certain to come to a halt in the rural-controlled Senate.

But in a One-House Legislature the group with the greatest number of votes will dominate—and there will be no court of appeal. save, perhaps, in the Governor's office. And in most instances, in all frankness, the cities would dominate the Governor, inasmuch as they have the greatest voting power.

The Unicameral system, at least from the agricultural standpoint, has little to recommend it. Still another proposal which is up for consideration calls for a Legislative Advisory Committee, composed of a committee of legislators and members of the Governor's staffs to meet between

Sierra Madre Boy Made Chief Cook In Biggest C.C.C. Camp

Les Perry returned home to Sierra Madre the fore part of the week to enjoy a two weeks' vacation from his duties at the C.C.C. camp in the National Forest area north of Santa Barbara. Because of the experience he gained while working in the Baldwin avenue Safeway meat market, Perry was recently promoted to the position of head cook at the conservation camp. With the responsibility of ordering all of the camp's provisions and cutting all of the meat consumed, he will receive an appointment as butcher with a correspondingly raise of salary as soon as governmental provisions are made for additional appointments. The camp to which he was assigned has an enrollment of nearly 300 and is the largest in California.

STATE RECOVERY ACT SUSTAINED BY COURT

Upholding the constitutionality of the California Recovery Act, which is modeled after the National Industrial Recovery Act, Presiding Justice Albert Lee Stephens of the State court of appeals, this week denied an application for habeas corpus release of a Long Beach man charged with violation of the State code for dyers and cleaners.

Justice Stephens held that none of the cleaner's constitutional rights had been infringed upon and quoted from the U.S. Supreme Court Decision in the Minnesota moratorium case: "The economics of the State may justify the exercise of its continuing and dominant protective power notwithstanding interference with contracts."

Fire Flames

By One of the Boys
DURING the meeting last week, when it came time for committee reports, a number of the boys could be seen leaning back for a good rest when George Norris arose to make his convention report. Much to their surprise, George made a very interesting and much too short report. Many vital subjects were hashed out at the Convention. The "Southwesters" were very much interrupted during their session by some of the leading officials who held a post-mortem meeting after the regular one. It was thought at times that the Chief and Frank Lovell would have to be put in a barrel to fight it out, but then our good peacemaker was there and everything came out alright. Many fines were collected for tardiness. This is very "unusual" among our members.

"Fire Prevention Week" starting October 6 is a National event celebrated in obedience to a proclamation issued by the President. Folks are urged to observe this week by looking over the premises and cleaning up anything that may be of a fire hazard nature. The local fire department will act during this week in aiding with suggestions as how to prevent fires. Let's keep the Fire's Out.

A Greater Service to Citrus Growers at a LOWER COST

TOP PRICES for the fruit and low marketing costs are fundamentals in the Exchange's 41 years of successful service to citrus growers.
More than any other citrus growers, Exchange members participate in services which favor higher net returns.
Exchange sales facilities are unrivaled. The personal success of district sales managers in 56 market centers depends on results obtained for their employers—the growers.
A market news service that uses teletype, telegraph and telephone to keep all Exchange shippers informed daily on all citrus sales in all markets helps insure top prices and proper distribution.
Careful grading, good packing, square dealing and 26 years of advertising, give the name "Sunkist" a standing with trade and consumer unapproached by any other brand.
The Fruit Growers Supply Company averts losses by assembling orchard and packing materials on time—usually at savings.
The Products Department converts and sells unmarketable fruit, replacing dumping charges with added income.
Group insurance lessens premiums on fire and compensation policies.
All of these activities favor higher returns from crops. And because they are supported by over 13,000 growers—better than three out of every four in California and Arizona—because the annual expense is divided among more than 25 million boxes of fruit, the total cost of all Exchange services compares favorably with the marketing fee alone of any other agency.

IN YOUR GARDEN

GARDEN NOTES
By Jessie Ward Russell
Landscape Gardener

IN THE landscape garden, there are spots where one needs low spreading shrubs so that the view will not be obstructed or to fill in corners of lawns. Here are some of the best low-spreading shrubs that we like to use for this purpose.

Creeping Juniper (Juniperus Chinensis procumbens) a very low shrub sending out long finger-like branches covered with silver-green needle-like foliage. It is very hardy and drought resistant. This variety is especially attractive draped over rocks at the side of pools.

Pfitzer's Juniper (Juniperus Pfitzeriana) is the largest of the creeping Junipers. Its foliage is silver-grey-green, branches plumelike, spreading out over the ground four to five feet. It is hardy.

Cotoneaster Glauca is the most beautiful of the low spreading Cotoneasters. Its foliage is a decided silver-grey with bright red berries during the winter months. The bright red berries are very attractive against the grey foliage. Planted in corners of lawns it stands out in contrast to the green grass.

Pyracantha Yunnanensis is a large spreading shrub with dark glossy green foliage and bright orange-red berries in great profusion almost covering the shrub during the winter months. If you desire to keep this shrub low, cut out all growth that has a tendency to grow upright.

For hot sunny situations the dwarf Lantanas will spread over the ground and should they grow too tall they can be easily pruned back.

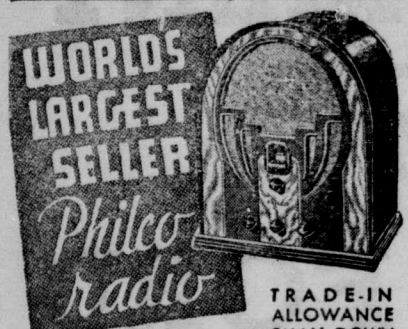

Tecoma Capensis can be grown as a low spreading shrub if pruned occasionally. It has splendid glossy dark green foliage and bright orange-red flowers. It blooms freely during winter months.

SELECT AVOCADOS FOR CALAVO MARKETS

Varieties of avocados rating "Calavo" next season will include Fuerte, Nabal, Puebla, Murietta Green, Taft, Lyon, Queen, Benik, Sharpless, Colorado, Verd, Challenge, Dickey-A, and smooth-type Dickinson, according to action taken by the board of grower-directors at their September 12 session. Many other varieties were deemed to be insufficiently known and tested as yet to rate "Calavo" at this time.

Maturity will be a season-long problem for the coming avocado year, due to the many distinct sets of fruit on the Fuerte trees, reported the production department. Market enforcement agencies state that large quantities of immature fruit are now being condemned.

Legion Gets Bad Beating From Kiwanis

Soldiers Humbled 16 To 9 In Closing Game Of The Baseball Season

In the closing ball game of the year here the Kiwanis humbled the local entry in the American Legion League by a score of 16 to 9 in a seven inning game on Friday night. Pratt, pitching ace of the Soldiers, was absent from the mound, his place being taken by Jobey Kiggins, erstwhile mainstay of the Kiwanis team.

His old teammates took kindly to Jobey's slants and showered them all over the outfield. Every man on the team registered one or more hits. Fred LaLone hit safely three out of his four trips to the plate, while Perry bagged four, including two homers. Hedlund, Fred LaLone, Marsh and Mathis also smacked circuit clouts. Gwyn again proved the Legion's steadiest batter, getting three out of five.

Registration At PJC Closes With Enrollment Of 3860

Registration at Pasadena Junior College closed Monday afternoon with approximately 3860 students enrolled, according to John A. Anderson, dean of records. No further applications for enrollment will be received, except from transfer students from other schools, he announced.

The junior college student body was addressed Monday by John A. Saxon, superintendent of the Pasadena city schools, who stressed character, taste and appreciation as the most important part of an education.

"Standards of education differ," Saxon said, "but the basic fundamentals remain the same. You take education with you wherever you go, whether in business, at home or with your associates. In conjunction with character it is up to the individual to understand the meaning of truth, honor and integrity. It is essential that the students, during their college life, display proper tastes in their activities."

Kiwanis Players Finish Baseball Season With Fat Team Averages

Under the efficient management of Jack Brain, the Sierra Madre Kiwanis ball team came through the baseball season just closed with an exceptionally fine record. Out of a total of 49 games played, the team won 34, lost 14 and tied one, for an average of .694.

Statistics show that the team was strong in all departments. They scored 416 runs, or 8.5 runs per game, as against their opponents' 238 runs, or 4.9 per game. They garnered 506 hits, an average of 13.3 hits per game, as against 361 hits, of 7.6 per game for their opponents.

In 1651 times at bat, the outfit averaged .306. The fielding average of .928 includes 1151 putouts, 263 assists and 109 errors. The team was not gooseegged during the season and the pitching staff of Kiggins, Hedlund, ePry and LaLone, given fine support, scored 10 shutouts.

Next week The News will publish complete individual averages, furnished by Jack Brain, whose cooperation throughout the season has been invaluable.

Art Appreciation Subject Of Survey That Centers Here

Vernon Jay Morse yesterday was appointed chairman of a local committee to represent the Los Angeles Art Association in promoting art appreciation and artistic consciousness among the people of Sierra Madre and other Los Angeles county communities. As a preliminary step, Morse announces that a photographic collection will be made of all the worthwhile paintings and art works in Sierra Madre. In order to secure such a collection the cooperation of the townspeople is asked. Everyone possessing a painting, or knowing of a painting in the city which in their consideration merits recognition, is requested to notify Mr. Morse through The News office.

A member of the committee of five, which has not yet been named, will investigate each art work recommended. All paintings, either portraits, murals or landscapes, that are adjudged good enough for the purpose, will be photographed and used in connection with a series of illustrated art appreciation lectures to be launched throughout the county by the Association. Both old and new works are wanted.

Quicker Action On Flood Control Plans Is Proposed

Designed to facilitate county approval of flood control projects in such areas as Sierra Madre, a plan for dividing the county flood control department into two sections, to be known as mountain division and valley division, was urged on the Board of Supervisors Tuesday by Flood Control Engineer Samuel M. Fisher.

"It is apparent at this time," Fisher told supervisors, "that the most vital and necessary task to be accomplished at the earliest possible moment is the reorganization of the flood control department. The present state of the organization is that various groups and members of the personnel are overloaded with work. The flood control district is doing the greatest hydraulic engineering of its kind in the United States, perhaps the world. It is preeminently an engineering organization and therefore must receive careful consideration as to its personnel and the segregation of its duties."

STAMP COLLECTORS HERE TO ORGANIZE

Sierra Madre philatelists and stamp collectors from Pasadena and nearby communities will have the opportunity of meeting at the local City Hall Thursday evening, October 18, it was announced by J. E. Lawrence, director of the Pasadena Stamp Society, sponsors of the event.

The stamp society, while organized only last June, has 123 charter members, and it is planned to ultimately extend the organization to include the entire Pacific Coast. If sufficient interest is shown here, regular monthly meetings may be arranged. Everyone is invited to bring his stamps for trade or sale, and his collection to show.

Favorite Recipes Of
Sierra Madreans

THE cheese omelet produced from this Kentucky recipe is so wonderfully good as a breakfast, luncheon or supper dish that some of your readers will undoubtedly be interested," writes Mrs. Aubrey Nelson, "so I am passing it on to you." And this is her recipe:

Stir one teaspoon of bread crumbs into one pint of scalded milk. Add butter the size of an egg, a little salt, and one-half cup grated cheese. Then add three eggs beaten separately. Bake 15 or 20 minutes in a hot oven. The egg whites should be folded in just before the bake pan goes into the oven. The pan should be large enough for the omelet will raise several inches. It should be served the moment it is drawn from the oven.

GREAT PLANETARIUM
TO OPEN JANUARY 1

A miniature universe in action will be opened to the public about January 1. This week the Griffith Park planetarium building was completed, and now the scientific apparatus is being installed under the direction of Dr. L. M. Langer and associates of the California Institute of Technology.

Hundreds of stars, the sun and the moon, and other planets surrounding the earth, will be reflected by a Zeiss projector on a large "sky" dome on which $555,000 has thus far been spent.

SIERRA MADREANS VISIT
DESERT MINING CLAIM

Ira Fox and Ralph Solary returned this week from a week at their mining claim in the Red Rock Canyon district in Kern County.

Twycross Covers
Over 8000 Miles On His Vacation Trip

S. R. G. Twycross returned on Saturday from his thirtieth annual visit to his birthplace. Cedar Grove, Maine, on the Kennebec River. During his visit in Cedar Grove he spent the time with his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hall, Henry and Addie Barker. Two weeks were enjoyed with his sister, Mrs. Langdon G. Paul, of Gardner, Maine.

Dr. and Mrs. Nat Barker, who wintered in Sierra Madre two years ago, entertained Mr. Twycross for a week at their home in Yarmouth, Maine. While in New York Lowell Barnore, cousin of E. Waldo Ward, and Daniel Richardson drove him around the big city and Mr. Twycross visited Mr. Ward's family on Long Island.

In Washington, D.C., he was the guest of his nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Greenleaf. The Century of Progress was visited enroute east. Over 8,000 miles was covered by rail-road and many hundreds of miles by auto in Mr. Twycross' vacation of a month.

BALL FANS GET GAME
AT LOVELL'S GARAGE

Sierra Madre baseball fans, while probably as rabid as many an actual world series spectator, contented themselves yesterday with the radio account of the 12-inning thriller won by the Detroit Tigers. Today they look forward to another neck and neck and neck fracas, a number of them planning to listen in over the loudspeaker at Frank Lovell's Sierra Madre Garage, where accommodations for 50 listeners have been furnished.

The broadcast, to start at 11 o'clock, comes through the courtesy of the Ford Motor company. All of the remaining contests will be released locally, and everyone is invited to be present at the garage.

NORRIS IS HONORED

At the recent State firemen's convention in Santa Cruz, George Norris, Sierra Madre volunteer fireman, was reelected to his post of Director of the Southern District, State Firemen's Association. HUGE SKATING POND
AT BIG PINES CAMP

Lovers of ice skating are to be provided with a splendid setting for this exhilarating sport the coming winter at the Big Pines recreation camp of Los Angeles county. Work is progressing rapidly on improvements and extensions that will expand the area of the pond to a total of more than 31,000 square feet, of which 18,000 square feet will be protected from the sun by a fringe of forest trees so that it may be used at all times during the winter season.

ABOUT WOMEN

Mrs. Anna Patchen of New York, totally blind, sets type in Braille characters for a widely circulated magazine for blind children.

To keep her husband at home on Sunday afternoon, Mrs. H. H. Reid of Atlanta chained his car to the back porch.

Edward and Mary Sieger of Racine, Wis., commemorated their golden wedding anniversary by being remarried. At the end of the ceremony Mrs. Sieger fell dead.

Although her husband was conventionally attired, Mrs. Cora Viola Balls Schaeffer, of Jefferson City, Mo., wore seersucker trousers, sweater and tam when she was married.

Concert Here Will Help Continue Big
Coast Attraction

Tickets are now on sale for the benefit concert, in behalf of the Los Angeles Philharmonic continuation fund, to be presented at the Woman's clubhouse here on Friday evening, October 12. The tickets will be sold through Francis Eakman and members of the local ticket committee which includes Mrs. M. R. Englander, chairman; Prof. and Mrs. Oskar Selling, Miss Orlene Burrow, Mrs. Janet S. Wood, Miss Lalla Fagge, Gustave Rihard, James N. Hawks, Dean Arnold, G. H. Bode and Dr. M. H. A. Peterson.

The concert is being given here to help raise money for the continuance of the philharmonic programs on the coast. Mrs. M. R. Englander, of 624 North Auburn avenue, has been selected as colonel and regional chairman of the Southern California Philharmonic Symphony Association drive for this district, which comprises Sierra Madre, Monrovia, Arcadia, Alhambra and San Gabriel.

The celebrated philharmonic orchestra, which for 15 years has given Los Angeles and Southern California the finest symphonic music in the land, is in danger of having to discontinue its programs on the coast unless $125,000 is raised immediately. This orchestra has played for many years in the Los Angeles Philharmonic Auditorium and the Hollywood Bowl, attracting international attention to Southern California. Its discontinuance would be a great loss to the Southland and the whole West Coast.

Jesus Teachings
Subject Of Study
By Woman's Society

The first study hour of the Women's Society of the Congregational Church proved very worthwhile to the group of women gathered on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. R. J. Waters, of Azusa, leader of the group, outlined the plan of the studies on "The Teachings of Jesus and the Life of Today." As an introduction and somewhat of a foundation, the history and geography of Palestine were discussed.

The following reports were given by members of the group: "Sources of Our Knowledge of the Life of Jesus," by Mrs. H. M. Welheim; "Geographical Position and Brief History of Palestine," by Mrs. Harry Lange; "The Sanhedrin," by Mrs. R. J. Lord; review of the article by Lewis Brown, "Why are Jews Like That," by Mrs. Arthur O. Pritchard, and "Is there anything in the Jewish character, which would explain the attitude of Hitler and the German people toward the Jews," by Mrs. Gilbert S. Boward.

The next meeting of the group will be on the second Tuesday of November.

New Train Whizzes
Thru Santa Anita
Like A Rifle Ball

Flashing past the Santa Anita station like a silver bullet, the country's crack streamline passenger express, the Burlington Flyer, headed back toward its eastern line Wednesday afternoon—and left one Sierra Madre amateur cameraman wondering whether or not he had succeeded in snapping its breath-taking passing.

Francis P. Conard, whose chief hobby is recording events of the day on picture film, heard that the train was due to leave the Santa Fe station in Los Angeles at 12 o'clock noon. He arrived at the local station barely in time to catch a glimpse of the famed flyer, at 12:20 o'clock, which gives some notion of its speed. "The thing went by so fast," Mr. Conard commented, "that I'm not even sure if it had two or three cars. Maybe the Graphex shot will show—if my lens snapped quickly enough."

Campbell, new advisor of the club, discussed District Federation business for the year. An informal tea for prospective members, will be held in the clubrooms on Sunday, October 14.
